

Burn through.

Localized darker density with fuzzy edges in the centre of the width of the weld image. It may be wider than the width of the root pass image.